KUPA DIRK KUPA

For real climbers there is the Kupa Dirk. This climbing equipment challenges children to move between the different plateaus. With climbing nets, ropes and ladders, this equipment with wooden uprights is a challenge for enterprising children. You can climb on many different ways to get from one side to the other. For an extra challenge, go via a moving rope ladder or climbing net or take the suspension bridge, beam or stainless steel swing bridge. On and off the device? Then you go via knotted ropes, sliding bars, wooden ladders on climbing nets. Possibilities are various! The Kupa equipment...
